Real Estate Private Placement Offering

with Fixed 12% Annual Return Over 3 Years

Risk Factors:

Investing in the Real Estate Private Placement involves certain risks, including but not limited to:

- Market Risk: The value of the Private Placement's investments may fluctuate due to changes in the real estate market or other economic factors.
- Liquidity Risk: The Private Placement's assets may be difficult to sell, which could make it difficult for the Private Placement to meet redemption requests or liquidate its assets.
- Regulatory Risk: Changes in laws or regulations could impact the Private Placement's ability to invest in certain types of real estate assets.
- Credit Risk: The Private Placement's tenants or borrowers may default on their obligations, which could impact the Private Placement's ability to generate income from its investments.

Risk Mitigation:

We mitigate these risks by investing in small spaces in secondary locations with higher rental yields and potential for appreciation. We leverage our in-house expertise in interior design and employ aggressive cost engineering to revamp these spaces, increasing their value and potential for income generation.

This approach allows us to offer a differentiated value proposition and makes us a safer investment option.
